Membership Policies, Benefits, & Termination

Under Article 3 of the Bylaws of the Temple of Hmongism, all decent persons of 18 years of age or older, or under the parent(s), interested in and faithful toward Hmongism are eligible to become members of the Temple of Hmongism. Membership is granted after completion and receipt of a membership application and annual dues. Membership may be denied if the membership committee decides that this person may be detrimental to the Temple of Hmongism.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- (1) Be 18 years of age or older or under the parent(s);
- (2) Believe in Hmongism's Statement of Faith in Article II;
- (3) Have good moral and humble character, not seeking personal gain;
- (4) Live within serviceable area of the Temple of Hmongism and those living outside of serviceable area shall pay for traveling expenses;
- (5) Returning membership of a person who had not been serviced by the Temple before leaving the Temple of Hmongism;
- (6) Returning membership of a person whose family had been serviced by the Temple before leaving the Temple of Hmongism has to pay his or her fee(s) set by the Temple of Hmongism, which is equaled to the current non-member servicing fee, in order to regain full membership of the Temple of Hmongism, and/or his or her application will be decided on a case by case basis by the membership committee; and
- (7) Other qualification(s) to be determined by the Board.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- (1) Members are not expected or required to attend the Temple on every Sunday or on a regular basis. They can come to the Temple during business hours to worship at their own free will;
- (2) Only members whose membership is paid for the current year will be members in good standing. Membership dues and privileges are determined by the Board of the Temple of Hmongism;
- (3) Members in good standing are entitled to attend general and special meetings, to vote on all questions coming before the membership, and to hold office and serve on standing or special committees;
- (4) Members are welcome to attend meetings of the Board and to participate in discussions on matters before the Board, but without a vote on matters before the Board;
- (5) The Board may, at its discretion, terminate the membership of any person deemed detrimental to Hmongism at any time by returning that person's remaining current dues;
- (6) An annual meeting of the membership shall be held each year on the second weekend of the month of October for the election of Officers and Board members at large and the transaction of any necessary business. If there is no election held, or a failure, to elect the next term of Officers and Board members, the current term shall continue to serve the Temple until the new Board is elected;
- (7) Special meetings of the membership may be called by the President at his or her discretion, or at the direction of the Board, or at the written request of at least 10% of the membership. Notices of special meetings shall state the matters to be considered;
- (8) At least one month's notice of the annual or any special meeting shall be given;
- (9) A majority vote of those voting is necessary to transact any business brought before the membership, including the election of officers, except as otherwise noted in these Bylaws;
- (10) Any members of the Temple of Hmongism, once signed the application and disclaimer on the form can not and shall not bring any legal claim against the Temple of Hmongism or any of its members so long as the Temple and its officials conduct the Temple's business within the guidelines spelled in the Bylaws and other guidelines or practices that the Temple officially adopted; and
- (11) Any non-member of the Temple of Hmongism can not and shall not bring any legal claim against the Temple of Hmongism or any of its member on behalf of his/her spouse, siblings or family members who is/are members of the Temple of Hmongism.

BENEFITS:

Members in good standing of the Temple of Hmongism would enjoy the following privileges and benefits.

- (1) Member(s), after twelve months from the date of acceptance of his/her or their membership or within twelve months in the case of death as a result of an accident occurred after the date of acceptance, shall receive full funeral services provided free of charge by the priests or txiv plig of the Temple of Hmongism. If a death occurred within six months from the date of acceptance, member(s) shall pay $2,500 servicing fee to the Temple. And if a death occurred between six months and a year from the date of acceptance, member(s) shall pay $1,250 servicing fee to the Temple;
- (2) Services for shamanism, khawv koob, wedding, and other non-funeral rituals shall be paid by the member(s), and their servicing fees are reduced and standardized (see chart for details);
- (3) Member(s) can have peace of mind, no longer have to wait for, kowtow to, or please relatives (kwv tij neej tsa) and traditional religious practitioners (thawj lwm tub ncig) to help them with the rituals in line (1) above;
- (4) As long as they remain good standing members by paying their dues, when in need, they simply notify the Temple and full services will be performed for them free of charge (in the case of a funeral);
- (5) While services are provided by the Temple, members have to pay for (1) food, animal(s), spiritual papers, incense, candle, and small service fee in the case of rituals of birth, shamanism, and wedding, and (2) funeral home and related expenses (before we have our own), food, spiritual papers, incense, candles, coffin, vault, grave, fee in line (1) above if applicable, and others in the case of a funeral;
- (6) If we have our own facilities, members can use the facilities free of charge;
- (7) While the Temple's facilities are open to non-members who have to pay non-membership cost (to be set by the Board), members of the Temple always enjoy the first priority;
- (8) The Temple will help document and preserve the history, lineage or family tree, both print and digital, of each member, and, if needed, help produce eulogy and visual documentary for its members in the case of death;
- (9) Members shall receive print, electronic or digital copies of materials of Hmongism;
- (10) Members are welcomed and respected as one religious denomination;
- (11) Members are guaranteed to save more time and money with Hmongism;
- (12) With the huge savings of both time and money with Hmongism, members can better invest them toward life, not death;
- (13) A member, who is the head applicant, and his or her spouse, after paying for his/her/their membership fee(s) for twenty years, shall become permanent member(s) of the Temple, and thereafter payment of membership shall be no longer required. In the case of separation or divorce, both spouses shall be treated with equal seniority that is transferable to include his or her new spouse should they choose to remain with the Temple; and
- (14) Other privileges and benefits deemed appropriate as the Temple grows in the future.

TERMINATION:

Membership in the Temple of Hmongism ends when one or more of the following occur.

- (1) A written or verbal request by the member;
- (2) Member has left the Temple of Hmongism or is attending another temple or church on a regular basis;
- (3) Membership has been suspended in accordance with Article 3, Section 2 (5);
- (4) Member no longer meets the qualifications for membership listed in Article 3, Section 1;
- (5) Member no longer believes in and is not faithful toward Hmongism's Statement of Faith in Article II;
- (6) Membership is not renewed by paying annual dues when due;
- (7) Death; and
- (8) Member who either cancels his or her membership or being removed by the Temple shall receive his or her remaining current dues.

DISCIPLINE OF A MEMBER:

Conduct contrary to the beliefs of Hmongism shall be sufficient grounds upon which any person may be disqualified as a member.

- (1) There shall be a discipline committee consisting of the member(s) of the Board and member(s) of the general membership. This committee shall have the authority to correct the members of the Temple where acts of immoral or improper behavior occur, doctrinal error, heresy, or promoting division in the Temple. If a member is the subject of a disciplinary matter, he or she shall not sit as a member of the discipline committee. He or she shall be entitled to the same steps as other Temple members and be subject to the same discipline;
- (2) Members are expected to demonstrate special loyalty and concern for one another. When a member becomes aware of an offense of such magnitude that it hinders spiritual growth and testimony, he or she should not share the offense with others. He or she is to go alone to the offended party and seek to restore the matter with a spirit of humility;
- (3) If reconciliation is not reached, a second member is to accompany the one seeking to resolve the matter. This second step should also be done in a spirit of humility with the goal of restoration;
- (4) If the matter is still unresolved after the steps outlined in sections (2) and (3) have been taken, the discipline committee, as the Temple representative responsible for settling disputes, shall hear the matter. If the matter is not resolved during the hearing before the discipline committee, the committee shall bring the matter before the Board that the Board may speak to the person and seek that member's restoration. The purpose is not to judge or condemn him or her, as a trial in court, but to win him or her. It is not to humiliate, but to reconcile that member;
- (5) If the matter is still unresolved after the steps outlined in sections (2), (3), and (4) have been taken, such members who refuse to repent and be restored are to be removed from the membership of the Temple and treated as unbelievers;
- (6) If an unrepentant person is removed from the Temple membership, all contact with him from that point forward must be for the sake of restoration (except for family members);
- (7) No matter may be heard by the discipline committee or the Board unless the steps outlined above have been taken.

The purpose of discipline is restorative and remedial. However, if a person is separated from the Temple, they may not be re-instated until there has been genuine repentance and reconciliation, which will be attested to by the head of the discipline committee and confirmed by the Board of the Temple.

Membership Fee

The current membership fee is set as shown below, guaranteed to be the least costly with the highest benefits for its members. In order to be considered or covered as a valid household member, a member should be an official resident of the named home, unless he or she is a single working or studying away from home.
